JOURNAL

SCRIPTURE

WHY A JOURNAL?

- It helps you retain and revisit God's truth.

Hearing or reading God's Word is only the first step; writing it down helps anchor truth in your mind and heart. A notebook like this becomes a personal record you can return to for encouragement, correction, and reminders of God's faithfulness.

- It bridges the gap between hearing and living.

The prompts move you from simply listening or reading to actively applying God's Word. By asking "How can I apply this by God's grace?" you're intentionally turning insights into action steps for real-life obedience.

- It fosters growth in community and prayer.

This tool doesn't just help you privately; it equips you to share your takeaways, Scriptures, and applications with others—whether in a Small Group, family conversation, or discipleship relationship—while also giving space to pray for yourself and others in light of what you've learned.

WHAT'S IN THIS JOURNAL?

This journal is designed to help you engage deeply with God's Word, both during sermons and in your personal Bible study.

The first section (beginning on page 8) features half a year's worth—26 weeks—of sermon notes. Take this each Sunday to church and use it to capture your notes from the teaching. Let it guide you in capturing key points, Scriptures, and personal applications from sermons.

The second section (beginning on page 36) gives you half a year's worth—182 days—of personal Bible study notes. This section is tailored for personal or group Bible study, helping you reflect, apply, and pray through what you read. Each page is laid out to help you stay organized, remember what you've learned, and take practical steps in response to God's truth.

LOCATION Ankeny Baptist Church

PASSAGE(S) 2 Timothy 1:1-7

SPEAKER Jason Blunk

THOUGHTS/TAKEAWAYS

- Paul writes with deep affection to Timothy, calling him "my dearly loved son." This is mentorship rooted in the gospel.
- Grace, mercy, and peace are more than greetings, they are the essential gifts of God in Christ.
- Paul's gratitude shows the importance of remembering those who have invested in our faith.
- Faith often comes through relationships, Timothy's grandmother and mother faithfully passed it down.
- God has given us not a spirit of fear but of power, love, and self-control, fear is not from God.
- Spiritual gifts must be "fanned into flame" through intentional use, not passively left alone.
- What does it practically look like to 'fan into flame the gift of God' in my own life?

BIG IDEA

God's calling on our lives comes with His power, love, and discipline, and we are equipped to live boldly for Him.

KEY SCRIPTURES

Deuteronomy 6:6-7

1 Timothy 4:14

Joshua 1:9

Galatians 5:22-23

BECAUSE OF WHAT GOD HAS SHOWN ME IN HIS WORD, WHAT'S MY NEXT STEP?

- Identify one spiritual gift I've neglected and intentionally use it this week.
- Encourage someone younger in the faith as Paul did with Timothy.

HOW TO USE THE BIBLE STUDY NOTES SECTION

Turn to God in Prayer

Use the "PRAY" prompts (Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, Supplication) to prepare your heart. Pray Psalm 119:18: "Open my eyes so that I may contemplate wonderful things from Your instruction." You could pray something like, "Lord, give me the desire to read your Word and live it out."

Read and Observe

Read the text carefully and repeatedly. Make observations. Ask, "What do I see?"

Ask Good Questions

Who, What, When, Where, Why? What does this teach about God and His character? Is there a command to obey? Is there a warning to take to heart? Is there an example to follow or not follow? Is there a promise to hold on to? How does this point to Christ?

Interpret

Determine the main point. R, A, help you do that. Understand the meaning the original author intended. We can't make the Bible say whatever we want it to say.

Next Steps

One thing that stood out to me? What should I repent of? What should I obey? What should I pray? How should this passage shape my thinking, affections, and obedience?

TURN TO GOD IN PRAYER ADORATION CONFESSION THANKSGIVING SUPPLICATION

God, I praise You for Your mercy and grace that make a transformed life possible. I confess that I often fall into the patterns of the world instead of allowing You to renew my mind. Thank You for Your patience with me, and please help me live today with humility, sincere love for others, and a willingness to serve.

READ AND OBSERVE

As I read Romans 12, I notice how Paul begins with God's mercy and then moves into practical instructions for living. I see repeated themes of humility, love, service, and unity within the body of Christ. Many of the commands focus on how believers treat one another and how they respond even to those who oppose them.

ASK GOOD QUESTIONS

Why does Paul connect worship with offering my whole life to God? What does it look like for my mind to actually be renewed instead of just knowing the right things? Where might I be thinking like the world instead of thinking like Christ?

INTERPRET

This chapter shows me that real worship goes beyond singing or attending church—it includes how I live every day. Because of God's mercy to me in Christ, my natural response should be to give my life fully to Him. That transformation should show up in humility, sincere love, and a willingness to serve others.

NEXT STEPS

One area where I may need renewal is in how I think about success and recognition from others. This week I can offer my life to God by serving quietly without looking for credit or attention. I also want to intentionally show genuine love to a coworker who is difficult for me to be around and look for a practical way to serve them.
